

INSPIRING CONNECTIVITY

Place yourself in a diverse port at the forefront of global trade and worldwide connections.

As the UK's primary transatlantic port and with deep water berths and state-of-the-art facilities, the Port of Liverpool has the capability to service 95% of the world's largest container ships.

Its central location and direct access to multimodal transport links mean that it's also one of the UK's best-connected ports.

With headquarters for four of the world's top shipping lines and home to world-leading manufacturers across the automotive, pharmaceutical, chemicals, FMCG and food & beverage sectors; Liverpool City Region provides organisations with the opportunity to connect with customers in markets on every continent.

Our Freeport status also provides those based here with valuable savings and ground breaking solutions to everyday logistics challenges.
